Dear John Price

Thank you for your correspondence of 16 July to the Welsh Government about guidance for music rehearsals. I have been asked to respond.

The Welsh Government has recently published its guidance for a phased return for culture and heritage venues and destinations, found here: <https://gov.wales/culture-and-heritage-destinations-and-venues-guidance-phased-return#section-45364>. This guidance will continue to evolve and change as the Covid-19 situation develops and we will keep these documents under review so that Welsh Government Ministers are able to give accurate and timely advice on when the different areas of the cultural sector can safely resume activity. When these details have been finalised there will be an announcement and an update on the Welsh Government website here: <https://gov.wales/arts-culture-sport>, and on the Arts Council of Wales' website here: <https://arts.wales/>.

We have asked the Arts Council of Wales to work with our cultural sectors to develop additional guidance covering rehearsal, performance and participation. This will inform our thinking on this important area and will be included here in due course.

The Welsh Government continues to monitor the situation daily and the guidance will be revised as and when it is safe to do so.

Yours sincerely

Tim Jenkins
